ENGAGING COMMUNITIES: LEARMONTH

The Engaging Communities Program (ECP) has changed the way the City of Ballarat connects with our communities. The people of Learmonth have been active participants during the three years of the ECP in their township, forming the Learmonth Community Action Team, identifying priority projects, building local partnerships, and strengthening local pride and participation.

The Learmonth Projects

The City of Ballarat proudly partnered with the State Government, local businesses and organisations to deliver more than $937,000 in community projects in Learmonth.

Celebrate Making Learmonth

Learmonth celebrated the completion of the Engaging Communities Program on Sunday 10 April at Richmond Park, marking the Pathway to Growth Project and three years of community engagement and project delivery with Making Learmonth.

Local investment of more than $937,000 is matched with the development of positive community partnerships and the many local benefits from the program including strengthening local capacity, building community resilience and enhancing the future of the local community.

The City of Ballarat thanks the Learmonth community for trusting and supporting the process of the Engaging Communities Program, and their dedicated involvement in the implementation and delivery of these great projects.
